

GLOBAL INDIGENOUS YOUTH SUMMIT (GIYS)

SIoux YMCA

Bulletin #5

April, 2019

Presenters

We want to highlight some of the fantastic presenters we have lined up and what topics they will be presenting.

Zach Weaver— from the Twin Cities YMCA will be holding an indigenous Olympics event for us. This will include many indigenous games such as archery, log carrying and tug of war. There are many different games that Zach could be bringing to this event. It will be exciting to see what games exactly will be a part of the Olympics.

Sioux YMCA Staff— The Sioux YMCA will be holding a bow making class that will give everyone the chance to make their own bow to take home with them.

What is the Sioux Y doing to prepare for GIYS?

The Sioux Y has been very busy getting everything in tip top shape for this event. We have been ordering all of the supplies, and materials we will need for a great event. We have been reaching out to some interesting and dynamic keynote speakers. We have even been painting our building! We want to have all expressions of art as a part of GIYS. We have our talented artist, Will Love Joy creating some spaces so that anyone who attends GIYS will be able to leave their mark on some of his beautiful murals. This is the wambli (english : eagle) mural that will be watching over the dinning hall! So start thinking of some things we can add to this space.
